Mr. and Mrs. Robert N. Millett and two sons, Robert and Donald are visiting relatives and friends in Norway and South Paris. They go to their home in Springfield, Vt., next week, where Mr. Millett is principal of the high school.

Walter C. Leavitt, who has been with his family at F. W. Farnes's returned to his home at Lynn, Mass., first of the week. Mrs. Leavitt and son, John, will remain a while longer with her people, who have recently returned from the Isle of Spring.

Dr. and Mrs. Guillelte, Vico Isola and Vivian Akers, who are spending the summer at Poplar Tavern, North Newry, spent Monday with George Howe, later visiting Mr. Akers' studio. Tuesday they spent at the lakeside fishing, and Wednesday they returned to North Newry.

Mrs. Charles Carroll of Lyndeburg, Vt., was the guest of Mrs. Rose L. Powers several days the first of the week. Mrs. Carroll was formerly employed in Mrs. Powers' millinery store and has a large number of friends in town. Mr. Carroll is in the south having spent his two weeks vacation with relatives earlier in the season in Massachusetts. Mrs. Carroll will return home last of the week.

E. L. Porter of Route 1, West Paris, and wife, son and daughter, made a drive to the south, where they had another copy of Hathorne's "Fenshaw," Marsh & Copan 1828 edition, about his house he could probably swap it for a machine and get boot if the market prices for the book set it high up.

HAYES & ALDEN'S BOSTON COMEDY CO.

Presenting the three-act musical farce, "A Jolly Mix Up," will be the attraction for the Norway Opera House, Saturday evening, Aug. 26.

This is the 12th season of this excellent organization and while the attraction has never appeared in Norway before it has met with much success in about all the other New England towns during its travels.

"A Jolly Mix Up" is a succession of interesting and diverting incidents. The fun is fast and is clean and wholesome and above the ordinary. The acting company is an especially strong one. Incidental to the action of the comedy a number of high class vaudeville acts are introduced, among the prominent ones being the Irving Bros. and Paul Ritchie in an original and intensely interesting Western sketch entitled "On the Rio Grande" and Miss Eda Clifford, Boston's favorite contralto.

Gorgeous costumes and picturesque stage settings are elements that contribute to make "A Jolly Mix Up" one of the best attractions to visit Norway this season.

The company carries at a heavy extra expense Stetson's Boston Orchestra and the show gives a two hour dance which is free to the patrons of the entertainment. The whole attraction is really two entertainments for one admission. The dance alone with excellent music by an excellent orchestra is the price of admission, but it costs the patrons of the show nothing extra.

Tickets are 25c with a few reserved seats at 50c for both the show and the dance. The reserved seats are now on sale at Stone's.

Norway Municipal Court.

Wm. F. Jones, Judge.

Albert Lodge, chauffeur for J. F. Howland, was before Judge Jones Monday, on complaint of W. A. Bicknell for over speeding the automobile on Main street. The witnesses were Cye Withum, Geo. W. Holmes and Donald Andrews. It is claimed the defendant was running at the rate of about 60 miles an hour to which he pleaded not guilty. Upon hearing he was found guilty and fined $10 and costs amounting to $19.01.

There has been a considerable over speeding auto about town this summer and if it is not stopped at once other arrests are going to be made. Over speeding has got to be stopped before any accident occurs. The officers are on the look out and will arrest any who are disobeying the law.

Allen Sibley of South Paris was before Judge Jones, Wednesday, and pleaded guilty to the charge of larceny. One day last winter he hired a coat of John F. Primmer's clothing store and turned it into money instead of returning the same. He was sentenced to thirty days in jail and was committed.

Half-Century Masonic Celebration.

The fiftieth anniversary of the raising of Francis S. Gammon and Stephen G. Hatch was observed at the home of Mr. Gammon, last Tuesday afternoon. Some forty and more members of Oxford Lodge No. 18, F. & M., were present.

Fifty years ago on the 22nd of August, Francis S. Gammon and Stephen G. Hatch were made Masons and were raised by the late Benjamin G. Barrows. At that meeting there were about 25 Masons present, all of whom have passed away except the two who were raised that night and Dr. Albert Thompson of Philadelphia. S. G. Hatch was 72 years of age last July and Francis S. Gammon is 74 this September. Mr. Gammon suffers from rheumatism in his legs badly and he was taken from the house in a chair to the orchard but was able to walk back, assisted by S. G. Hatch and J. H. Murdoch. A lunch was served, consisting of sandwiches with apples, bananas, coffee and frosted cake, doughnuts, etc.

Secretary H. D. Smith made a few remarks and Clarence M. Smith made one of the happiest speeches of his life in presenting Masonic watch charms to Mr. Gammon and Mr. Hatch in behalf of Oxford Lodge.

The party was conveyed there by eight autos and five teams and the committee of arrangements were Albert J. Stearns, Lee M. Smith and G. R. Curtis. The Gammon farm is about three miles out of Norway village. The house is of ancient make, built more than a hundred years ago, and farming is done in the old-fashioned way. There are from 250 to 400 acres of land that go with the place. We were shown the orchard and the effects of plowing the ground as to making the trees bear fruit. They have a large amount of apples. A cranberry bed was seen, probably 50 feet square in a swamp, from which we were told they had gathered 17 bushels of cranberries in a season. The barn is crowded full of hay, and cattle are tied by the neck in the old-fashioned way.

Among the older Masons present were W. H. Porter, 89 years old last May, and the present owner of the Boston Globe came who has been a Mason 47 years. He belonged to South Paris Lodge.

Francis A. Danforth, Norway, aged 78 years, was there, lacks only a few months of being a Mason 50 years. He was raised in Tyrion Lodge of Mechanic Falls.

Past Master of the Grand Lodge of Masons A. S. Kimball was present. He is a member of Mt. Tirm Lodge of Waterville.

S. M. Parham of Jefferson Lodge, No. 100, of Bryant Pond was present.

Quincy Adams Sawyer.

The famous play entitled Quincy Adams Sawyer was finely presented at the Norway Opera House, Tuesday evening, to a full house. The play which by no means a new one to theatre goers by no means as interesting as it was the first performance, and the entire audience gave its close and undivided attention.

The scenery was mostly new and the scenes were unusually interesting, with the different touches of nature combined with the scenes of rural life. The action of the play is such that there is no long drawn out period and the action was kept in continual laughter throughout the play. The acting was good and the parts well taken.

The husking bee scene was the merriest time of the year, and the dancing and the singing along with the speeches drew loud applause from the audience. Bernice Nash presided at the piano during the evening.

Field Day and Picnic.

The annual Oxford County Pomona Grange field day and basket picnic was held at the Fair Grounds between Norway and South Paris, Tuesday. During the forenoon all roads led to the Fair Grounds and by noon there was a large crowd assembled from far and near.

At noon all assembled in groups under the shade of the pines and enjoyed the picnic dinner. Hot coffee was furnished on the grounds. E. E. Twitchell's booths were open for the sale of fruits and soft drinks and were busy most of the day.

Many of the boys enjoyed games of base ball at various parts of the Fair Grounds although there were no picked games.

Among the speakers of the day were C. S. Stetson, State Master of the Grange, who spoke on the subject of "Roads and Road Maintenance." He handled his subject, which is a very popular one in this vicinity, in a very able manner. He described the roads as they ought to be and the way to maintain them, and said the men who work on the road should take an interest in them and for each dollar received should give a dollar's worth of work. He also spoke on the marketing of goods and showed the inequality of arrangements when the farmer sells his barrel of apples for $1.50 and they in turn are sold in Boston for $4.50.

Lodge No. 18, F. & M., were present. Fifty years ago on the 22nd of August, Francis S. Gammon and Stephen G. Hatch were made Masons and were raised by the late Benjamin G. Barrows. To Ailing Women.

A Little Sound Advice Will Help Many a Sufferer in Norway.

No woman can be healthy and well if the kidneys are sick. Poisons that pass off in the secretions when the kidneys are well, are retained in the body when the kidneys are sick. Kidneys and bladder become inflamed and swollen and worse troubles quickly follow. This is often the true cause of bearing down pains, lameness, backache, etc. Urine poison also causes headache, dizzy spells, languor, nervousness and rheumatic pain.

When suffering so, try Doan's Kidney Pills, a remedy that has cured thousands of such cases. You will get better as the kidneys get better and health will return when the kidneys are well. Let a Norway woman tell you about Doan's Kidney Pills.

Mrs. Joseph A. Woods, Summer St., Norway, Me., says: "I am glad to say a word in praise of Doan's Kidney Pills. I was annoyed for a long time by backache and other symptoms of kidney trouble. I tried many remedies but got no relief until I began using Doan's Kidney Pills. The contents of two boxes brought me great relief. I might add that Doan's Kidney Pills also cured my little son of weak kidneys." 33-34

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cts. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and no other.

Isaac Aulando Furlong.

The funeral services of Isaac Aulando Furlong, who entered into rest August 14th, were attended by relatives and friends Aug. 15th in Roxbury, the Rev. Bradstreet Gilman officiating and music being rendered by Mr. Bartlett of the Harvard quartette. Moore's "Come Ye Disconsolate" and "Abide With Me" two of Mr. Furlong's favorite songs were rendered.

Mr. Furlong died at the Homeopathic Hospital following an operation, about two weeks after.

Mr. Furlong was one of four sons of Ruth Nathan Furlong of Waterford, and Isaac Furlong of Greenwood, in which latter place he was born May 15, 1858.

In 1881 his parents moved to Wisconsin and ten years later Mr. Furlong, after a few years in business in Chicago came to Cambridge, Mass., and July 23, 1875 married Lizzie Mason, who died May 15, 1907. Mr. Furlong also survived a son, Forrest.

During most of Mr. Furlong's business career, he was associated in wholesale groceries with a number of leading Boston houses. Of a strong inventive tendency he also exhibited artistic qualities from his parents, particularly his mother who had a strong gift for poetry and music.

Mr. Furlong had marked natural ability with pencil and brush and music devoting much of his time professionally to the latter, singing as tenor in a number of well known quartettes and as soloist, at St. Paul's for two years at the time when Phillips Brooks was rector, also at Park Street Church; Franklin Street Church, Cambridge and elsewhere. The sterling qualities of his character endeared him to all who knew him.

Mr. Furlong this summer paid a visit to the old homestead and the scenes of boyhood at Greenwood.

Among his near relatives he is survived by a brother, Albert B. Furlong, whose achievements in the field of painting and music are well known here and abroad and two nephews, Atherton B. Furlong, Jr., vice president of the The Universal Piano Company, New York and a well known pianist, singer, and "Charles Wellington Furlong" the artist, author and explorer. Capt. Leonard Furlong P. C. whose recent death was announced from the Philippines was also a nephew.

The burial service took place in New Haven, Conn., where the remains were interred.

ATTACK LIKE TIGERS.
In fighting to keep the blood pure the white corpuscles attack disease germs like tigers. But often germs multiply so fast that the little fighters are overcome. Then see pimples, boils, eczema, salt rheum and sores multiply and strength and appetite fail. This condition demands Electric Bitters to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to expel poisons from the blood. "They are the best blood purifier," writes C. T. Bulfinch, of Tracy, Calif., "I have ever found." They make rich, red blood, strong nerves and build up your health. Try them. 50c at the Noyes Drug Store. 31-34

SHAW FAMILY REUNION.
The Shaw family reunion was held on Thursday, Aug. 17th, at the summer home of John Bryant, adjoining the original farm of the family in Buckfield. A large number enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Bryant. The large barn served as a dining-room for the picnic dinner.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. James DeCoster of Mechanic Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Decatur Irish, Mrs. Eliza Bryant (at home), Fred Skillings and daughters Mabel and Rose of Auburn, Mrs. Ada Shaw and daughters, Amy, Mildred and Helen; Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Gammon, Mechanic Falls, Harry W. DeCoster and son, Percy, Decatur, and other children of Lynn, Mass., James O. DeCoster, wife and three daughters, Dorothy, Marion and Elizabeth, of Springfield, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. James E. Irish and son Howard, Mr. and Mrs. John Bryant, Mr. and Mrs. James Bryant and children, Wilma and Jimmie. Neighborhood children joined in the frolic and games of the little guests.

After dinner was served Mr. Bryant came with his team to carry the tin and sisters, daughters of Isaac Shaw, about the orchard which their father had planted more than fifty years ago. The buildings have been torn down and removed but the grand old poplar trees and heavily loaded orchard, is a memorial of ancestor, whom the descendants delight to honor.

Experienced travellers have found great benefit by taking with them a bottle of DR. SETH ARNOLD'S BALSAM. It cures illness caused by impure water and sudden changes in the climate. Warranted by Noyes Drug Store.

Cornish Fair.

The track was in excellent condition and some of the fastest heats and races in years were pulled off.

A new front and gateway, together with new ticket office and grandstands of the president, secretary and treasurer, add much to the general appearance of the surroundings at the grounds and many other extensive repairs have been made. Those interested in horse racing will be pleased to know that the track has been newly cleaned, making it one of the best in the State.

Two miserable looking hoboes called on the dean of a medical college and proposed that he purchase their bodies for the dissecting room, as they were on the verge of starvation and had not long to live.

"It is an odd proposition," hesitated the dean.

"But it is occasionally done," suggested the spokesman eagerly.</

Happy Children's Party.
The beautiful lawn at Forrest Thurston's home furnished just the proper setting for a happy children's party, Friday afternoon, the 18th day of August. The happy event was given to celebrate two birthdays, that of Henry Bradbury and Master Harold Thurston. Master Harold received his friends dressed in Indian costume and the older members of the party found their interest in the happiness of the children and in admiring the beautiful flowers and shrubs.
Later in the afternoon a table covered with all sorts of good things was spread under the stately elms and the scene was a pretty one as the eager children clustered about. The crown of the feast was the birthday cake that was indeed a work of art, and Mrs. Thurston presented it to Mrs. George M. Chase of Lewiston as her birthday also was near at hand. Then it was discovered that five of those present were born during the last half of August. The men of the party assisted Mrs. Thurston in serving delicious muple ice cream, home made cookies, nabis, peapods, chocolate fudge and molasses kisses besides the fine birthday cake.
Those who shared in the delightful afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Thurston and sons, Harold and Stanley, Pearl Bradbury and son, Henry, Vivian Thurston of Errol, N. Norway Lake School Reunion.

The eighth annual reunion of the teachers and pupils of the Norway Lake school district was held on Friday, August 18th.

The day was perfect and saw a large gathering, 225 being present. Long before noon the guests began to arrive, some in teams, some in autos and some on foot, and the time before dinner was spent in renewing old acquaintances and talking over the "old times."

A little after twelve o'clock dinner was announced, and those who were fortunate in being present enjoyed a fine repast, such as only the splendid cooks who live in this quiet little neighborhood can get together.

After dinner all were in a mood to enjoy the literary entertainment which the program committee had prepared, and was carried through with a smoothness which reflects credit on the retiring president, Donald Partridge, who presided.

Judge Charles F. Whitman of Norway gave the address of the day and talked over the old school days. Dora Kerwin gave two readings, which were the retiring president, Donald Partridge, who presided.

Much credit is due all the retiring officers and committees who attended to their respective tasks which blended the whole into one of the most successful and most enjoyable of those yearly gatherings of old District No. 5.

Following is the program:

Remarks—

Mrs. Ellen Stevens French, Mrs. Hattie Young Hixon.

A rising vote of thanks was given Judge C. F. Whitman and Dora Kerwin for their help in our entertainment for our eighth reunion of the old teachers and pupils of District No. 5. Adjourned to meet in one year.

The program committee were fortunate in not only having an original poem written for this occasion but of having the author, Chas. S. Bartlett of Auburn, to deliver it in person. For the benefit of those who were not present we print the poem:

Told in School Meeting, 1826, District Five
"Good men and true, you are assembled now
At this, Our District School House, March 10th,
To hear and give that we need full $20 to times present term.
For the teacher's getting sulky for the twelve weeks of his term.

"He says to me last Wednesday night: 'Dear Jones, it seems quite wrong To keep me only boarding round (the meat's now getting strong)
For pork that's killing me, my friend is rather worse for wear.
Twelve long weeks I've ate it, but no money
I declare.
'And beens they too (I liked 'em once) I dare not even race,
For yellow eyes though good at times, are alien to our race;
How can a man on such like feed, teach the rule of three,
On these alone, as well beside, read Pope,
Milton and Algebras?
'Besides all this, at the school the fire wood I fit.
'Twas long old oak and elm, so hard it broke That mean old Tory, Samuel Smith, to pay his chill and daughters, Beatrice and Marjorie, are stopping at Pleasant View by the lake. They are enjoying their outing very much.

THAT AWFUL BACKACHE

Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Morton's Gap, Kentucky.—"I suffered two years with female disorders, my health was very bad and I had a continual backache which was simply awful. I could not stand on my feet long enough to cook a meal's victuals without my back nearly killing me, and I would have such dragging sensations I could hardly bear it. I had soreness in each side, could not stand tight clothing, and was irregular. I was completely run down. On advice I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills and am enjoying good health. It is now more than two years and I have not had an ache or pain since. I do all my own work, and I am absolutely confident, and the advice free."

Write to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., for special advice. Your letter will be absolutely confidential, and the advice free.
